Inviting people to church and Jesus. Is it God's work or our work?

"Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me?
The words I say to you I do not speak on my own authority.
Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work."
(John 14:10)

_____ is at work in your _____.

"Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the works themselves. Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father."
(John 14:11,12)

Because we are physically present and _____ is not, we are _____ at connecting with people in ways he no longer does.

"I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it."
(John 14:13,14)

How many of us believe in Jesus because some person—friend, teacher, parent, group leader or pastor—told us about Jesus or taught us about Jesus?

Discussion Questions

1. Follow through with one of the next steps above. Involve a friend or your group for prayer, accountability and encouragement. Work on it together. Build a faith habit.
2. God is at work in your words! Inviting is doing something greater than Jesus does it. How is that true? Do you believe it?
3. Who is your “one?” Take an Invite Your One card. Fill it out and bring it back next Sunday for our prayer team. Make a list of “ones” in your LifeGroup and pray for the inviting.
4. Study the words of the Nicene Creed. In how many places does it teach the biblical theology that the Son is in the Father and the Father is in the Son?
5. Make a list of what to pray for as you prepare to invite. Jesus says, “Ask me, and I will do it” (John 14:13,14).
