

When Is the Best Time for Evangelism?

November 9, 2025 - Luke 10:1-3 - Part 2 - Invite Your One

“How long will you delay what’s _____ to you just so that you can handle the next _____ thing in front of you?” (James Clear)

Evangelism means “_____.”

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. He told them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.” (Luke 10:1,2)

You are the Lord’s _____.

What if we talked about Jesus as much as we talk about _____?

“Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.”
(Luke 10:3)

Discussion Questions

1. Follow through with one of the next steps shared at the end of the Message. Involve a friend or your group for prayer, accountability and encouragement. Work on it together. Build a faith habit.
2. Evangelism means “good news.” It is the gospel of Jesus Christ with divine power to save (Romans 1:16). Who shared it with you when you first believed in or learned about Jesus?
3. What makes inviting people to church urgent? What makes it also important? What’s the difference? Who will you invite?
4. When is the best time for evangelism? Read 2 Corinthians 6:2. Are there some times, moments or seasons when it is better to invite someone to church?
5. Who is your “one?” Take an Invite Your One card. Fill it out and bring it back next Sunday for our prayer team. Make a list of “ones” in your LifeGroup and pray for the inviting.
