

Love Never Fails

May 15, 2022 + 1 Corinthians 13:1-8 + Part 3 of the series Victorious

I promise that this week, some very good things or people you love will _____ . How will you respond?

The failure of love isn't the problem; rather, our _____ of the failure is our problem.

"If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver us from it ... we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up."
(Daniel 3:17,18)

Love ...

is patient	keeps no record of wrongs
is kind	does not delight in evil
does not envy	rejoices with truth
does not boast	always protects
is not proud	always trusts
does not dishonor others	always hopes
is not self-seeking	always perseveres
is not easily angered	never fails

SPIRITUAL NEXT STEP

Ready for more love in your life that will not fail? Find this video on YouTube and take 5 minutes a few times this week for Bible inspiration: Driven By a Better Love (Compilation, Time of Grace) youtu.be/IEFa1vdV9Rc.

Discussion Questions

1. Ready for more love in your life that will not fail? Find this video on YouTube and take 5 minutes a few times this week for Bible inspiration: Driven By a Better Love (Compilation, Time of Grace) youtu.be/IEFa1vdV9Rc.

2. Reflect in prayer on this and fill in the blank. Discuss with Christian friends.
“One of my personal weaknesses is my faulty interpretation of [someone or something I love] when that person or thing fails me.” How can this temptation draw you closer to Jesus? What is your next step? Can Psalm 27 help?
3. In what different ways did the love of three men for God change the attitude and behavior of a king? Read Daniel 3.
4. Pray for a friend who needs Jesus, and an opening to speak with them about love that never fails. And maybe show them that love, too.