

Jesus Washes Dirty Feet

July 30, 2023 + John 13:12-17 + Part 6 of the series God's Living Water

"Let me _____. I can _____. I will _____."

When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. "You call me Teacher and Lord, and rightly so, for that is what I am." (John 13:12,13)

"Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you." (John 13:14,15)

"Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them." (John 13:17)

SPIRITUAL NEXT STEP

Consider the statement, "That's not my job." At work. At home. In a marriage. In church life. What can it mean, both negatively and positively? Would Jesus ever say that?

Discussion Questions

1. Consider the statement, "That's not my job." At work. At home. In a marriage. In church life. What can it mean, both negatively and positively? Would Jesus ever say that?
2. Have you been wearing the blue wrist band from our God's Living Water series? Have you shared one with a friend? How is God working through it?
3. Read John 13:1-17. Search online for a picture of Jesus washing feet. Find a good one and share it with family and friends with the caption, "Jesus gets messy."
